Vision Statement:

Cambridge Virtual Academy is a 7th through 12th-grade public virtual academy in the Anaheim Union High School District that opened in July 2020.

CVA develops young scholars into compassionate innovators, critical thinkers, and problem solvers who will lead and succeed at all levels of society. The school is divided into two 18-week semesters. Students earn 5 credits per semester. Classes meet synchronously once a week, with office and lab hours as additional support.
